Bungalows with edge

IN TOWN

Chiswick, London W4
New-build house

What you get One bedroom (with en suite), kitchen/reception room and utility room; 726 sqft in all. Plus, a garden, garage and parking.

Where is it? Southfield Road is a brief walk from Turnham Green Tube.

Upside Trendy new-build house for a couple looking for more space in leafy Chiswick. It has a crisp finish, glossy white kitchen and smart landscaped garden. The house is along a gated driveway, has an alarm system and is close to Acton Green Common.

Downside All the windows (apart from one skylight) are at the front of the house, and there is only one entrance.

Price £499,999

OUT OF TOWN

He nley-on-Thames, Oxon, RG9
Re furbished family home

What you get Five bedrooms (master with en suite), study, sitting room and kitchen/dining/family room; 2,682 sqft in all.

Where is it? On Greys Road. He nley-on-Thames railway station is a 20-minute walk away; trains take just over an hour to get to London.

Upside This refurbished and extended bungalow turned luxury home is glamorous without being too showy; swanky new additions include an integrated sound system and underfloor heating.

Downside If minimalism doesn't do it for you, you may want to add colour to those stark white walls.

Price £1.2 million

OUT OF TOWN

Longhope, Glos GL17
Ar chitect-designed house

What you get Three bedrooms (master en suite), bathroom, shower room, study, kitchen, reception room; 1,507 sq ft. Plus, a workshop, greenhouse and a third of an acre.

Where is it? Longhope village is nine miles west of Gloucester.

Upside A modern gem in the Severn Valley, for lovers of elegant functional style. Little London was designed and built in the Sixties by the architect Gerry Jones. The sleek, low-lying build is designed to make the most of the far-reaching views; the balcony and glazed doors stretch the length of the building.

Downside The steep, sloped garden. The whole house would benefit hugely from some TLC; the kitchen and the heating system need replacing, says the agent.

Price £349,000
